

Mint Paper

from MiNT MONDAY

Bridging the gap between the Creator and Collector.

Summary

The phrase 'NFT Giveaway' carries a lot of baggage. Often used by scammers to lure in NFT owners under the guise of earning free NFTs for simple tasks and retweets, only to exploit their vulnerabilities and empty their crypto wallets. So, is there any legitimate NFT giveaways? Do those twitter contests actually deliver on what they promised? Is there anyone I can trust to guide me in the right direction with discovering legitimate projects? Yes, there is! And Mint Monday is your answer.

Mint Monday is a 'soft' launchpad that focuses on social media promotion and project Whitelist giveaways to market their quality NFT projects. We are selecting the most promising projects to work with, giving them exclusive access to our strong Mint Monday community. Our team consists of 3 passionate NFT enthusiasts with years of experience in entrepreneurship, investing, and HR/Business Administration. We are here to help support NFT projects in their community growth by leveraging not only our knowledge and experience, but our rapidly growing community through our Mint Monday discord and Twitter Spaces. In return, we will be rewarding our Mint Monday community with special NFT giveaways and whitelist opportunities from some of the most promising NFT projects!

Welcome To Mint Monday

Mint Monday

The Problem

The cNFT community is growing at an exponential rate. Projects are popping up on a daily basis and unfortunately smaller, legitimate projects are often getting lost in the shuffle. We are afraid this will suppress the growth and innovation we expect in Cardano, by discouraging quality developers from growing due to over saturation.

Our Solution

We created Mint Monday to help solve this problem. We are partnering with young, incredibly innovative projects to give the average NFT enthusiast the chance to win free NFTs and/or Whitelist's to mint their projects and become part of their communities at low barriers of entry. We will build the 'Alpha Central Hub' in our Mint Monday discord where the top NFT creators and collectors will drop the latest Alpha on their amazing projects for our community members at no cost! Education will ALWAYS be free and ALWAYS be Mint Monday's #1 priority!

Our Vision

Our vision is to create a world around NFT education and collecting, giving NFT collectors a safe, exclusive way to enter the NFT market with confidence. Confident they can successfully vet a NFT project and feel comfortable sending their hard-earned ADA without the fear of being scammed or misled due to lack of knowledge and experience.

For our creators, we are here to connect you to a strong, loyal group of like-minded NFT collectors who are interested in learning more about the cNFT marketplace and the new projects developing on the Cardano Blockchain across the globe. We help bridge the gap between creator and collector, hosting weekly Twitter Spaces where projects come and discuss in detail the ins and outs of their projects, allowing our community an opportunity to ask the necessary questions they need, to collect with confidence. Each campaign can be customized to deliver a more personal experience that will strongly benefit both parties.

Our Mission

We at Mint Monday believe that project giveaways and whitelist opportunities are great ways to bring new NFT collectors into new and developing projects at an amazing entry point. This allows collectors to know the project's innerworkings from inception, creating loyal community members who become Subject Matter Experts that will help grow the project and spread its message to the masses.

The Mint Token

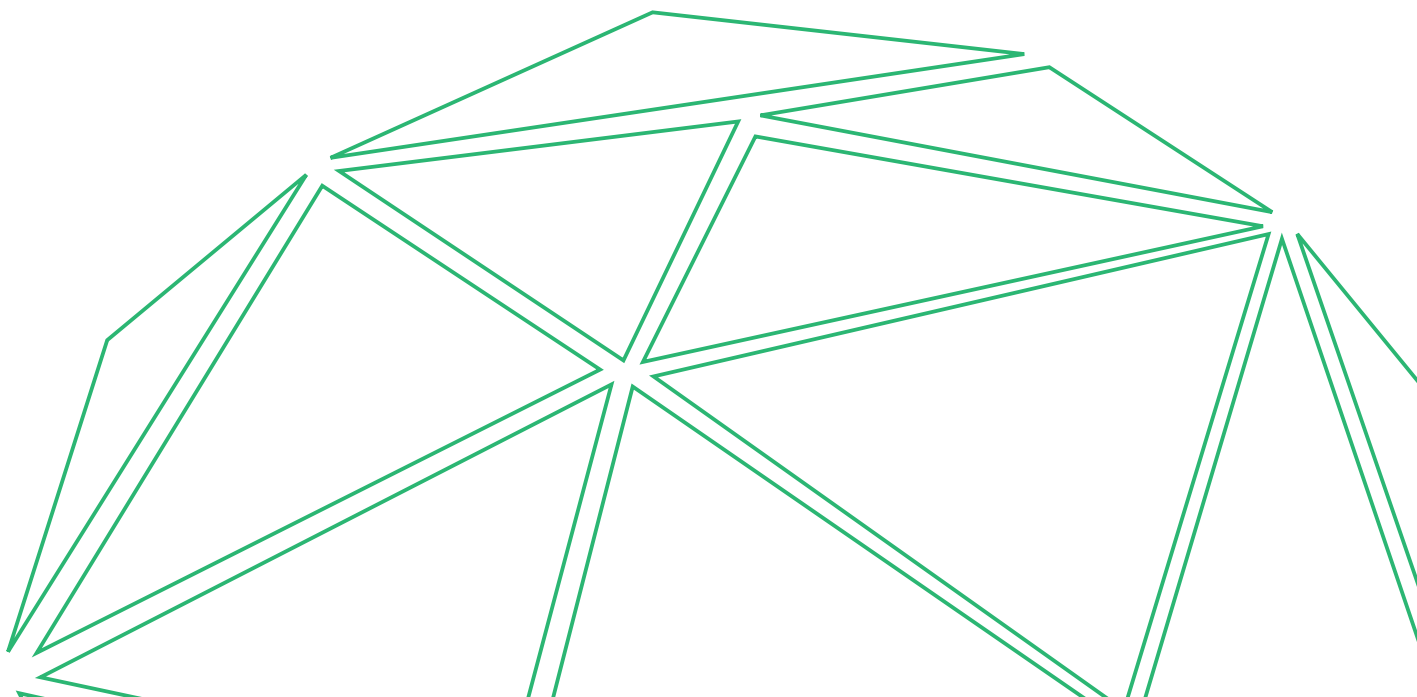

The Mint Monday team is discussing a possible Mint Token and if it will create an appropriate level of utility and not hinder the growth of Mint Monday from a regulatory standpoint. Still TBD.

What's Next for Mint Monday?

Mint Monday will continue to grow our brand by networking with the top projects in the Cardano space. We will host Twitter spaces for projects to discuss their collections, have a fully operational discord where Alpha will filter to our members at no cost from Project Developers and some of the most seasoned NFT collectors. Mint Monday will attend the top NFT conferences and education courses to learn the latest information in the space where we can then disseminate it out to our members providing as many opportunities as possible. Our Mint Paper will continue to grow with Mint Monday and is always subject to change with the evolution of the space. Be on the lookout for new updates!

The Mint Clubhouse

We have built an estate in District 3 where we will be hosting future spaces in 'Meta-person'. We will host meet ups where the Mint Mob can come and just hang out and chill with the rest of our growing community. The Mint Clubhouse will also be the home of our Mint Gallery, where will be showcasing some of our communities best NFTs they have to offer!

The Mint Team

Chubb

Darren Stephens aka Made by Chubb is a serial entrepreneur, former music producer and ½ of the Platinum Duo 'Key Pusherz'. Most known for their work on Young Jeezy's 2nd album, "The Inspiration". After music Chubb started a custom apparel company in 2014 that became a local success in the city of Indianapolis. Chubb has traveled across the US in his business ventures, from Indianapolis, Las Vegas, New Orleans, and now residing in Atlanta, GA. During Chubb's journey he discovered Cryptocurrency in 2016 and has been learning the technology behind it ever since. Chubb invested into Cardano at around .30 cents and continued to invest while researching Cardano until he came across their NFTs. Chubb made his first NFT purchase shortly after joining the Clay Nation community and the rest was history. Chubb's love for NFTs has blossomed into several businesses involving the space, one being his ebook that teaches people how to get started in the NFT space and even a NFT merch business CNFTee.club. Chubb came up with the idea for Mint Monday in November of 2021, putting together a plan to give away a NFT every Monday for the year of 2022. Looks like his plan is off to a great start.

BossFace

BossFace a.k.a Big Rickie is a serial Entrepreneur and Philanthropist reigning from Indianapolis, Indiana United States of America. BossFace owns several businesses from a real estate investment firm, market and leasing agency, office solutions, assistant living locations, owns a shoe brand 'Space Kadets', as well as multiple apparel brands. He and his wife also wrote the book, "How to Make 6 figures in the Midst of a Pandemic." Bossface plays a major role in local community growth by performing charity work, donating to local community foundations and helping raise financial literacy awareness. BossFace is also part of the music group 'Men of Business' aka MOB, who won Billboard song writers awards and toured with major artist such as Curtis Blow, E40, Juvenile, BG, Shawty Lo, Boosie, Webbie, Jeezy, Currency and DJ Khalid just to name a few. BossFace is also a song writer and producer for the BC MetaStars, the first superstars of the metaverse. As a long-term investor, BossFace always looked for new opportunities to help build wealth for his family and that's when he stumbled across crypto and NFTs. BossFace's first crypto purchase was Bitcoin. During this time BossFace also purchased his first NFT, which was a playable Nipsey Hussle avatar on Blankos Block Party created on the EOSIO blockchain. Thanks to his cousin and business partner Chubb, BossFace now holds a wide range of over 500 NFTs including more than a dozen BCRC assets on the Cardano blockchain. BossFace's goal is to inspire others and to creatively push the limits in this space to reach new heights and opportunities. Also help by bringing value and positivity to our Mint Monday community.
